Payment Policies

Queen City Ballet has five 7 week semesters divided into 9 payments due on the 1st of the month and are to be paid by auto-draft from your debit or credit card.

All students must register and pay a $20 non-refundable annual registration fee.

There are no refunds. Make-up classes for holidays and sick days are scheduled through the student's teacher and must be taken within the semester in the appropriate level. If a student has medical issues that prevent them from participating in the program, refunds will be applied by semester.

Classes are subject to cancellation or combination with another level if fewer than 6 students are registered and paid.

Initial here _____ that you understand the registration fee, tuition, payment plan and refund/make-up class information.
